

LALIT HOTEL

Once home to St Olave's Grammar School, this 19th century red brick building has now transformed into a boutique hotel, the LaLit Hotel, with a unique blend of Indian and British style to the interiors.

Triton were appointed by S&T Interiors in 2016 to undertake extensive leadwork, painting, façade cleaning, stone and brick restoration, new stonework, new brickwork (new entrances), rainwater pipe renewal/restoration, and temporary structure works.

CONTRACT VALUE: £750,000

"Conserving our Heritage"